Certified Medication Aide

Dear Jayda Pettersen,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Certified Medication Aide position at Brookdale Senior Living. With a compassionate heart and a dedication to excellence in senior care, I have accumulated five years of hands-on experience at Sunrise Senior Living, where I honed my skills in medication administration and patient support. I am excited about the opportunity to bring my expertise and passion for elder care to the team at Brookdale Senior Living.

During my tenure at Sunrise Senior Living, I have developed a strong understanding of the responsibilities and nuances involved in medication management in a senior care setting. My commitment to maintaining meticulous records, ensuring the accurate dispensing of medication, and monitoring residents for side effects has been paramount in providing the highest level of care. I am well-versed in collaborating with healthcare professionals, including pharmacists and doctors, to ensure that all medication protocols are followed and that the well-being of our residents is always the top priority.

My experience extends beyond medication management; I have also been actively involved in creating a nurturing environment for our residents. I believe in the importance of providing emotional support, engaging in meaningful interactions, and contributing to a positive living experience for seniors. My approach to resident care is holistic, considering both their physical and emotional needs, which aligns with the values and mission of Brookdale Senior Living.

I am excited about the opportunity to meet with you and discuss how my background, skills, and enthusiasms for senior care will make me an excellent fit for the Certified Medication Aide position at Brookdale Senior Living. I am confident that my proactive approach and dedication to quality care will contribute positively to your team and the lives of your residents.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of contributing to your esteemed community and am eager to discuss how my experience and approach to care can align with the goals of Brookdale Senior Living.

Warm regards,

Mellissa Oppedahl
