

Leana Rafii

Clinical Research Manager

Dear Kharissa Frauendorfer,

I am writing to express my interest in the Clinical Research Manager position at Covance, as advertised. With five years of dedicated experience in clinical research at Parexel, I have honed my abilities in study management, protocol development, and team leadership, all of which I am eager to bring to your esteemed organization.

At Parexel, I successfully managed multiple global clinical trials, ensuring they were executed within timelines, budgets, and with strict adherence to regulatory guidelines. My role required me to collaborate closely with cross-functional teams, which has equipped me with a robust understanding of the complexities involved in clinical research and the importance of cohesive team dynamics. I am particularly proud of leading a trial that advanced to the next phase ahead of schedule, resulting in substantial cost savings and accelerated time to market for a critical medication.

My hands-on experience is complemented by my proactive approach to problem-solving and my unwavering commitment to maintaining the highest standards of ethical research practices. I have consistently demonstrated my ability to navigate the challenges of patient recruitment, data integrity, and regulatory compliance, all while fostering a positive work environment and mentoring junior staff.

Joining Covance would be an exciting opportunity to contribute to a company that is renowned for its innovation and commitment to improving healthcare outcomes. I am particularly drawn to the prospect of working on groundbreaking therapies that have the potential to transform patient lives.

I am eager to discuss how my background, skills, and enthusiasms align with the goals of Covance. I am confident that my experience has equipped me with the knowledge and expertise to make a significant contribution to your team and support the company's mission of delivering solutions that bring a new dimension to healthcare.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of discussing this exciting opportunity with you.

Warm regards,

Leana Rafii
