

Johann Deshetler

Aircraft Painter

Dedicated Aircraft Painter with 1 year of experience, demonstrating proficiency in utilizing high-quality painting tools and equipment to deliver exceptional results. Skilled in surface preparation, masking, and applying various paint types, ensuring durability and adherence to industry standards. Strong attention to detail and a commitment to safety protocols, ensuring efficient and accurate completion of tasks. Adept at working both independently and collaboratively within fast-paced environments.

johann.deshetler@gmail.com

(512) 030-9275

1234 Maple St, Milwaukee, WI 53202

Education

Certificate in Aircraft Painting and Finishing at Fox Valley Technical College, Appleton, WI

Aug 2018 - May 2022

Relevant Coursework: Aircraft Surface Preparation, Paint Application Techniques, Corrosion Control, Safety and Environmental Regulations, Quality Assurance, and Advanced Finishing Techniques.

Links

linkedin.com/in/johanndeshetler

Skills

Electrostatic painting

Airbrush techniques

HVLP spraying

Surface preparation

Masking proficiency

Paint mixing

Detail finishing

Employment History

Aircraft Painter at Gulfstream Aerospace Corporation, WI

May 2023 - Present

- Successfully completed the painting of over 200 aircraft within a year, achieving a 98% on-time completion rate and exceeding company targets by 10%.
- Effectively reduced paint wastage by 15% through the implementation of efficient paint mixing techniques and proper storage, resulting in annual cost savings of $50,000 for Gulfstream Aerospace Corporation.
- Led a team of 5 junior painters in a high-priority project, completing the full exterior paint job on a luxury aircraft in just 7 days, 3 days ahead of schedule, and receiving commendations from both the client and management.
- Developed and implemented a new aircraft paint inspection process that increased defect detection by 25%, leading to a significant improvement in overall paint quality and customer satisfaction.

Aircraft Painter Assistant at NewView Technologies, WI

Sep 2022 - Apr 2023

- Assisted in the successful painting of over 150 aircraft within a year, resulting in a 20% increase in productivity for NewView Technologies, WI.
- Played a key role in reducing paint wastage by 15% through the implementation of efficient paint mixing and application techniques, leading to annual cost savings of $25,000.
- Contributed to the achievement of a 95% customer satisfaction rating by consistently meeting project deadlines and delivering high-quality paint finishes on all aircraft.
- Collaborated with a team of 10 painters to complete a major aircraft repainting project in just three weeks, setting a new company record for project completion time.

Certificates

National Association of Corrosion Engineers (NACE) Coating Inspector Certification

Jan 2022

Aircraft Painters and Finisher's Certificate from the Professional Aviation Maintenance Association (PAMA)