

Jeananne Burkard

Helicopter Mechanic

Profile

Employment History

Details

jeanne.burkard@gmail.com

(808) 482-6316

1234 Maple St, Springfield, IL 62704

Helicopter Mechanic with 2 years of experience in providing comprehensive maintenance, repair, and inspection services for various helicopter models. Skilled in diagnosing and resolving mechanical issues efficiently while adhering to safety regulations and industry standards. Proficient in using specialized tools and equipment, interpreting technical manuals, and collaborating with cross-functional teams to ensure optimal aircraft performance and reliability. Demonstrates strong problem-solving, communication, and time management skills.

Helicopter Mechanic at Airborne Maintenance & Engineering Services, IL

May 2023 - Present

- Reduced aircraft downtime by 15% through the implementation of efficient maintenance schedules and streamlined repair processes, resulting in increased operational efficiency for Airborne Maintenance & Engineering Services.
- Achieved a 98% on-time completion rate for all scheduled helicopter maintenance tasks, ensuring minimal disruption to flight operations and maintaining the company's reputation for reliable service.
- Trained and mentored 10 junior mechanics, improving their technical skills and knowledge, which contributed to a 20% increase in overall team productivity.
- Successfully led a team of 5 mechanics in the complete overhaul of a helicopter engine within a tight 30-day deadline, saving the company $50,000 in potential outsourcing costs and ensuring the timely return of the aircraft to service.

Helicopter Mechanic Apprentice at Helicopter Specialties, Inc., IL

Sep 2021 - Mar 2023

- Successfully completed a 12-month apprenticeship program, gaining hands-on experience in the maintenance, repair, and overhaul of various helicopter models, including Bell, Airbus, and Sikorsky.
- Assisted in the completion of over 150 scheduled and unscheduled maintenance tasks, contributing to a 98% on-time completion rate for the team.
- Played a key role in reducing aircraft downtime by 20% through the implementation of an efficient parts inventory management system, ensuring the timely availability of necessary components for maintenance tasks.
- Collaborated with a team of 10 experienced mechanics to complete a major helicopter refurbishment project three weeks ahead of schedule, resulting in customer satisfaction and repeat business for the company.