

Nana Alt

Special Education
Preschool Teacher

Details

nana.alt@gmail.com

(176) 284-6885

123 Main Street, Boston, MA 02108

Profile

Dedicated Special Education Preschool Teacher with 1 year of experience in creating inclusive and nurturing learning environments. Skilled in developing individualized learning plans, implementing evidence-based strategies, and fostering communication and social skills in young learners. Committed to collaborating with families and professionals to support each child's unique needs and growth.

Employment History

Special Education Preschool Teacher at The Guild for Human Services, MA

Mar 2023 - Present

- Successfully implemented a new individualized education program for 20 students, resulting in a 35% increase in their overall progress and skill development within a year.
- Developed and executed a comprehensive behavior management plan for 15 students with behavioral challenges, leading to a 40% reduction in classroom disruptions and incidents over a six-month period.
- Coordinated and led a team of 5 paraprofessionals in providing consistent and effective support for 25 students with diverse learning needs, contributing to an 80% improvement in student engagement and participation in class activities.

Assistant Special Education Preschool Teacher at Milestones Day School, MA

Jul 2022 - Feb 2023

- Successfully supported the development of 20+ preschool students with special needs by implementing individualized education plans, resulting in 80% of students achieving their annual goals.
- Co-developed and implemented a new sensory integration program for the preschool classroom, leading to a 50% reduction in sensory-related behavioral incidents within six months.
- Collaborated with a team of special education professionals to create and execute a comprehensive social skills curriculum, resulting in a 30% improvement in peer interactions among students in one academic year.
- Led the organization and execution of the first annual Milestones Day School Preschool Art Show, showcasing the creativity and talents of over 15 participating students and raising $1,000 for classroom materials and resources.

Education

Bachelor of Science in Special Education at Boston College, Chestnut Hill, MA

Aug 2018 - May 2022