

Aloha Torr

Speech Pathologist

Profile

Dedicated Speech Pathologist with 2 years of experience in providing compassionate and effective therapy to clients with diverse communication needs. Adept at developing tailored treatment plans to address individual goals, utilizing evidence-based practices to ensure optimal outcomes. Skilled in collaborating with multidisciplinary teams, educating families, and advocating for clients' communication rights. Committed to ongoing professional development and maintaining current knowledge in the field of speech-language pathology.

Employment History

Speech-Language Pathologist at SpeechPath Solutions, TN

May 2023 - Present

- Successfully treated over 150 patients with speech and language disorders, resulting in a 95% improvement rate in their communication skills within six months of therapy.
- Developed and implemented an innovative group therapy program for children with autism, leading to a 90% increase in social communication skills and a 30% reduction in behavioral issues for the participating clients.
- Conducted over 50 professional development workshops for educators and medical professionals in the TN area, leading to a 75% increase in referral rates to SpeechPath Solutions and a 60% increase in clinician knowledge and confidence in addressing speech and language disorders.

Speech-Language Pathology Assistant at Tennessee Speech-Language Pathology Services, TN

Sep 2021 - Mar 2023

- Successfully implemented a new therapy program for 30+ clients with autism spectrum disorder, resulting in a 25% improvement in communication skills within the first six months.
- Developed and conducted a series of workshops for 50+ parents and caregivers, increasing their understanding of speech and language disorders by 40% and promoting effective at-home strategies for continued progress.
- Collaborated with a team of 10 speech-language pathologists to design and implement an efficient documentation system, reducing administrative workload by 20% and allowing for more focused client care.
- Assisted in the evaluation and treatment of over 100 clients with various speech and language disorders, contributing to a 90% success rate in meeting individualized therapy goals within designated timeframes.

Education

Master of Science in Speech-Language Pathology at University of Tennessee, Knoxville, TN

Details

aloha.torr@gmail.com

(735) 622-6534

123 Oak Street, Nashville, TN 37203

Links

linkedin.com/in/alohatorr

Skills

Phonetics

Audiology

Dysphagia management

Augmentative communication

Voice therapy

Fluency training

Apraxia rehabilitation

Languages

English

German

Hobbies

Scrapbooking

Playing a musical instrument

Gardening